

CONTROL FLEXIBILITY VARIETY CHOICE

This is AG Integrate

CHOOSE YOUR OWN PATH

Where should I go with my career? Am I ready to take on a fresh challenge? Will my skills and knowledge be in demand?

If you're considering becoming a legal contractor, you'll no doubt have plenty of questions. It may seem like a life-changing leap, but you needn't go it alone.

At AG Integrate, we help lawyers and legal professionals become successful contractors. Our consulting model gives you flexibility, control and the opportunity to work with a variety of clients, across all kinds of projects. Crucially, we work closely with you to find the positions that match your skillset, personality and goals.

WHAT IS AG INTEGRATE?

From managing change to reducing risks, our clients face business-defining challenges on a daily basis. There are times when they simply can't handle the volume, complexity or urgency of demands. And this is where we come in.

AG Integrate gives major brands the legal support they need on a short, medium and long-term basis. We trust our contractors to find answers, troubleshoot, firefight and give clear direction in complex situations. We're proud to be the 'go to' partner for many of our clients.

WHY CONTRACTING?

Whether you're newly qualified or a Partner-level expert, contracting brings multiple benefits:

BROADEN YOUR EXPERIENCE

You get the chance to work for a diverse array of clients across a variety of sectors – from public to private, finance to retail. It's an excellent opportunity to broaden your portfolio and experience new challenges.

TAKE CONTROL

Life as a contractor puts you in the driving seat – whether it's choosing to work reduced hours, taking on short contracts or working for clients in a specific field. With greater control comes more freedom. You can pursue other passions such as spending time with family, travelling the world or taking on other Non-Exec Director roles.

EMBRACE NEW CHALLENGES

Every placement brings opportunities to learn new skills and expand your knowledge. It could be the technicalities of a certain sector. Or simply learning how to work with different personalities, technologies or brands.

HOW WE WORK

CREATING CHEMISTRY

As an AG Integrate consultant, you'll benefit from our Career Concierge Service. Before you join the team, you'll meet one of our partners and a talent manager who will get to know you and your skillset.

We'll work with you to identify your motivations and ensure we fully understand your strengths and your preferred ways of working. For each project, we'll design a process to embed you with your client in a way that makes the most of your skills and preferences.

Call it chemistry, call it cultural fit, call it respect and recognition. Whatever name you put to it, the process of matching you to your clients is one we take extremely seriously.

SHARING OPPORTUNITIES

Part of Addleshaw Goddard – a major premium law firm – we open up opportunities at top-quality clients both nationally and internationally.

GIVING SUPPORT

You may be working in-house with one of our clients, but you're always part of the AG team. We'll keep in regular contact through our mentoring system, training events and diarised catch-up calls. And as well as access to AG's resources, you'll also enjoy the security of knowing you're backed up by our support and expertise.

WHY US: IN YOUR WORDS

“

AG Integrate can provide career-enhancing placements, working with FTSE companies, while at the same time giving you all the professional support and know-how you may need.

“

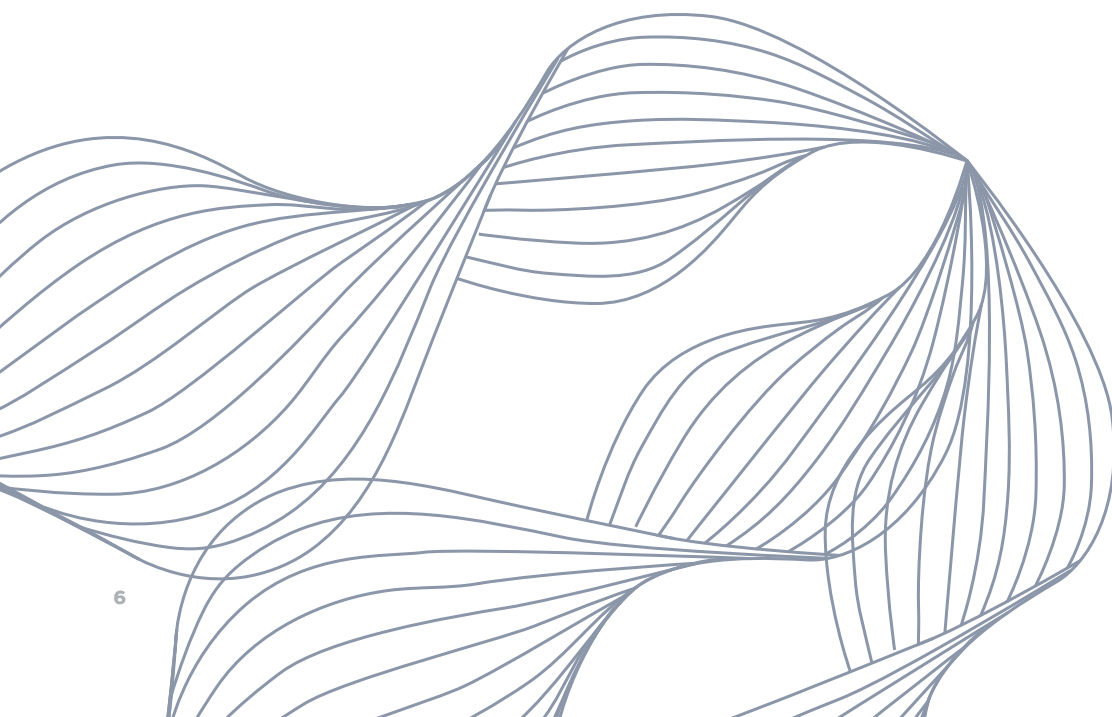

There's always someone at AG ready to provide support. Whether that's preparing for a role, getting technical advice or discussing next steps.

ARE YOU READY?

To become a AG consultant you'll need technical knowledge and experience. You'll need to have the drive to develop your career outside the traditional route. But just as importantly, you'll need soft skills: the mindset to collaborate, the confidence to work with a new team, and the ability to self-motivate and quickly add value. If you have that mix, we'd love to hear from you.

LET'S TALK

Contracting opens up all kinds of exciting and highly rewarding opportunities. It's more than a career change, it's a life-changing move. To find out more, get in touch with our team via email at AG.Integrate@addleshawgoddard.com. We'll arrange a call so that we can talk through your experience, the process, options and opportunities, and give you the confidence to take that first step.
