

REGULATORY ESSENTIALS TRAINING PROGRAMME

2025-2026

REGULATORY ESSENTIALS

Addleshaw Goddard's Financial Regulation Group runs an annual training programme on key regulatory aspects in financial services. Although ideal for new joiners, the webinars are also a good opportunity for others in legal, compliance and business functions to refresh and update their regulatory knowledge and practice.

This year the programme will run over 10 lunchtime 90-minute sessions and will focus on the regulation of products and services that we advise on in each sector together with forthcoming regulatory developments.

A summary of the sessions is described below. Invitations and registration details will be sent out during summer, so please make every effort to register and attend all of the sessions.

In the meantime if you or anyone in your team wishes to be added to our mailing list, please email our Events team.
